CAMPBELL MAY ACT HIMSELF

Speaker Marshall Thinks Governor
Will Not Call Special Session.

Special to the Eagle.

Austin, Texas, Nov. 8.—Despite the startling conditions in the state penitentiaries and camps uncovered by the legislative investigating committee, Speaker John Marshall yesterday afternoon declared he firmly believed Governor Campbell will take the matter of reform methods into his own hands and not call a special session. He will be guided partly by his past financial policy.

Lieutenant Governor A. B. Davidson expressed himself in favor of an extra session to correct conditions by readjustment of prison management, if conditions are as bad as reported.

Such difference of opinion causes the belief that if the governor responds to popular agitation aroused by the investigation, he will immediately call a special session of the legislature.

Davidson declared that the prisons need radical overhauling. The governor's closest advisers say he has not intimated his intentions. They believe he will not call a special session unless the need for one be imperative.

WOMAN AT ONE SPOT 24 YEARS

Death Finally Removed Her From Window in Hospital.

Special to the Eagle.

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 8.—After 24 years spent at the same window in St. Alexis hospital, a woman whose name is unknown, who has never spoken, heard a sound nor moved of her own volition in the 44 years since her birth, died Saturday.

She was brought to the hospital when she was 20, deaf, dumb and paralyzed.

Her name was lost two decades ago. Her aunt, an only relative, died a few months after she was admitted to the hospital. She has been known only as Lottie.

WILL NOT CALL IT.

Gov. Campbell Says He Will Not Call
Extra Session Unless Imperative.

Special to the Eagle.

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 8.—Governor Campbell, here to open the International Fair, says he will not call a special session of the legislature for the purpose of prison investigation unless public interest makes it an imperative necessity.

HORRIBLE DEATH NEAR BREMOND

Sat Down on Railroad Track and Evidently Went to Sleep. Body
Badly Mangled.

Special to the Eagle.

Bremont, Tex., Nov. 7.—Last night about 1 o'clock Mr. Carroll, a horse trader, sat down on the railroad track about two hundred yards from the depot, his feet hanging down over a cattle guard. An incoming train from Waco, in rounding a sharp curve, discovered him when too late to stop and cut him in mince meat. His head, shoulders and one arm constituted one piece, and the lower part of the body was badly mangled. Part of his family were here and had his body prepared for burial.

Mr. Carroll was about 50 years old. His remains will be carried to his home at Fort Worth.

No blame is attached to the railroad company, as the man was evidently asleep. About $20 was found on his person.

ROOSEVELT ALL RIGHT.

British Colonial Officers Send a Reassuring Report.

Mombassa, British East Africa, Nov. 7.—The government, which has been investigating the rumors concerning the illness of former President Roosevelt, while not successful in getting in to direct communication with Col. Roosevelt and his party, has at least learned sufficient to satisfy the officials that there is no truth in the rumors. The latest dispatch received to night from officials in the interior says:

"Nothing known here of the rumors. Ednaa Ravine reports all well Oct. 30. The Roosevelt party is now on a long safari."

OLD CANNON IS FOUND IN CREEK

May Be one of Houston's Famous Twin Sisters.

Speculation as to the final disposition of General Sam Houston's famous cannon, the "Twin Sisters," promises to be renewed through the finding of an old gun in Clear Creek one day last week. A government dredge is at work dredging and removing snags in Clear Creek and during the process of this work brought to the surface an old fashioned cannon, carriage and ammunition chest.

Those who have examined the relic believe it to have been lost in the creek by the Mexican general, Santa Anna, during the Texas war of independence in 1836. It is supposed that Santa Anna, after his defeat at the battle of San Jacinto, which gained for Texas her independence, crossed Clear Creek hurriedly in his retreat and lost the piece in the waters of the stream. The cannon was found about two miles below Friendswood, and the iron and wooden parts are in a bad state of decay. It is nevertheless recognized as a cannon of antiquated type. What disposition will be made of the relic is not known, but undoubtedly the Daughters of the Republic will ask that it be given them. —Houston Chronicle.

BOARD $20 DAY SALARY $40 MONTH

That is Present Gait of Millionaire
Railroad's Son.

Special to the Eagle.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Nathaniel F. Moore, son of J. H. Moore, one of the powers in the Rock Island railroad system, has started in the railroad business, working in a freight house at $40 a month.

Incidentally it was learned at the La Salle hotel that if he intends to live on his salary he will have only two days to stay in his present apartment, as he is paying him $20 a day.

And this will have to be without meals.

Special to the Eagle.

New York Nov. 8.—Wm. J. Gaynor, who will become mayor of New York on January 1, spent his first day of rest after the election by taking a 20-mile walk on the road near his Long Island farm and then by donning his overalls and assisting his farm hands to husk the fall gathering of corn.
